Downtown Detention Pond Design

Pond Engineering has submitted the design for the West Broad Street (east) detention pond. This pond will be an attraction in its own right, and a featured amenity to our new downtown development. Situated behind our eventual downtown, and adjacent to our future new City Hall, this pond will become a fun gathering place for families, a picnic lunch spot, and just a place to relax.

Business Spotlight: Sugar Hill Day Care Center

Sam (photo) and Chantale Islam started the Sugar Hill Day Care Center in August of 2007 dedicated to create a trusting, decent, and safe environment. They believe in a school where all children can learn, and achieve at the highest level. Chantale is a certified Early Childhood Education Teacher, and Sam is an accomplished performing magician.

They have introduced new affordable pricing for the new year, and ask that you check their web site for complete information about the services offered. www.sugarhilldaycare.com

Construction Watch: New and Ongoing

West Broad Street improvements have started with the enclosure of the historic Sugar Hill Baptist Church Cemetery. Through a cooperative effort between the City of Sugar Hill and the Church to preserve and protect the cemetery while beautifying West Broad Street for eventual development. The photo on the right is the West Broad Street (west) detention pond. This will contain runoff of the eventual downtown parking and surface areas.

News Bites:

- Matt Davy a supervisor with Plaza Security reported to the Mayor and Council on their first month on patrol in Sugar Hill. They have observed some gang graffiti and have increased patrols as they receive updated police reports on certain trouble areas. Please let City Hall know of concerns you may have in your neighborhood so that we can schedule revolving Plaza patrols. For HOAs and group meetings with Plaza call 770-455-0905.
- The City has expanded Gary Pirkle Park by purchasing five acres on Suwanee Dam Road that includes the Garner house with its unusual twin silos. The City plans to create a unique facility for meetings, weddings or family gatherings. In addition, the property will provide an overview of the soccer fields with additional parking and Park access.
