

Downtown Master Plan: New City Hall

The anchor for the new “downtown” will be a new City Hall. To be built on West Broad Street at the old Nu-Air site and within a realignment of Church Street and Temple Drive.

The new City Hall will be much larger to accommodate the future growth of the City and services. The site will be adjacent to the retention/detention pond amenity and to off street parking. We are planning for street trees, street lamps, benches, waste units and wide sidewalks with brick accents. We will be holding several meetings to solicit community input on the design of an early 20th century look for a City Hall. Comments and suggestions are welcomed and will be duly noted. We will have a variety of designs and sketches for critique.

Business Spotlight: Sugar Hill Automotive

Owner Tom Steele along with partner Bill Seaton started the business in early 2007. Tom and master mechanic Tony Lanois have been repairing cars since they were teens. Recent addition of service writer Lorin Ward completes the three man team. The 6,000 sq ft. shop has all the latest computer tools to diagnose and facilitate quick repair of your vehicle. Business has been steady with repairing cars, instead of folks buying new autos. Located at 440 Brogdon Road, their phone is (770) 904-0404

Construction Watch: New and Ongoing

The fence enclosing the historic Sugar Hill Baptist Church Cemetery is complete and will be a major contribution to beautifying West Broad Street for eventual commercial development. On the right is the view of Gary Pirkle Park from the newly acquired Garner property on Suwanee Dam Road. The final grading going on in the photo is in preparation for the 255,000 sq ft of synthetic turf fields, the largest such fields in the entire Southeast.

News Bites:
