City To Maintain Current Tax Rate!

The Mayor and City Council have voted to maintain the current tax rate despite declining revenue due to the recession, home foreclosures, property values declining and City property being used for schools, parks and places of worship. The latter properties are not taxable. City Manager Bob Hail indicated that the City can maintain the current level of service by controlling expenditures.

Gwinnett Jets Semi-pro Football moves to GPP

The Gwinnett Jets semi-pro football team has contracted with the City of Sugar Hill to hold their home games at Gary Pirkle Park. Their first home game is July 24th at 6:30 on the main synthetic field. The concession stand will be open and there will be entertainment. The Gwinnett Jets play in the Southern Football League in which they won the 2009 Division Championship with a 10-1 record. Jets Coach Oscar Dillard has an extensive resume coaching winning teams, and is currently owner of Oscar Dillard Football Academy training athletes year round. ## Construction Watch:

The new Kroger on Hwy 20 is now closed in and interior work is well underway. The enormity of the new store is evident in the photo. To honor Memorial Day the height of the war monument in the town green was raised 4'. Curbing is starting on the crossing from the EE Robinson expansion to the existing park. The "T" ball fields are progressing on Level Creek. Reeves Construction was awarded the retention pond contract.
