Suite Spot @ Sugar Hill Showcase

Palmetto Grant Consulting (PGC) specializes in helping educational and non-profit organizations obtain grant funding. They offer comprehensive funding research and provide grant resource development services to rural and urban nonprofit organizations, educational entities, and local governments.

PGC is a virtual company, with grant consultants throughout the Southeast. Recognized as its “Amazing Entrepreneur” in 2013 by the Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce, they’ll use their space as a home base and location for team meetings and client appointments. President and founder Susan Bacon is looking forward to being a part of the growth of downtown Sugar Hill. “With the type of work we do, it was an easy choice to participate in the Suite Spot’s business space. We’re all about a collaborative work environment.”

Music Mayhem Series @ Sugar Hill

Do you, or your group have musical talent? The City of Sugar Hill is calling all musicians, and aspiring musicians to take their talent to the stage for the City’s Music Mayhem Series. The Music Mayhem Series will be used as a qualifying round for the Battle of the Bands Finale on Saturday, October 18. Our Music Mayhem Series will kickoff on August 7th at 7pm at the Bowl @ Sugar Hill. Residents will be invited to watch local artists perform. Participants with the most votes tallied through the City’s Facebook page will move on to the City of Sugar Hill’s first ever Battle of the Bands. Stay tuned for more details on the City’s Facebook page. To enlist your band in the battle, contact Scott Andrews at sandrews@cityofsugarhill.com, or 770-945-6716.

Sugar Hill is Getting Social

The screenshot shows the Facebook profile for the City of Sugar Hill, Georgia. The cover photo is a scenic view of a park with a large tree and a building. The profile picture is a logo for the 75th anniversary (1939-2014). The page has 257 likes and a recent status post that says "Excited for our community to help us reach 1000 likes!".

On Tuesday June 16th the City of Sugar Hill became a bit more “likeable” joining the social media scene on Facebook. Residents and businesses are invited to stay up to date with the latest information on City activity, events, and opportunities for involvement. The City of Sugar Hill page can be found at

<https://www.facebook.com/CityofSugarHill>. The City would like to reach 1000 likes prior to our 75th Anniversary on August 2nd. Please help the City spread the word and “share” the “like.”
