Sugar Hill Fall Festival
Saturday, October 21st

Better than ever! The 6th Annual Sugar Hill Fall Festival includes music from Tommy Crain's Crosstown Allstars, concerts by local churches and schools, over 100 selected crafters new children's inflatables, carnival games, and face painting. The Sugar Maple 5K Run will be professionally managed. This year we have added a parade with floats and bands, a Toddler Trot, a Car Show with "Fast Cars of Then and Now" and a Chili Cook-Off. The Parade begins at 9:30 am around the Town Green and ends at Sugar Hill Elementary. Festival hours are from 11am to 5pm. So come join us October 21st at EE Robinson Park for North Gwinnett's event of the year. This year's festival will be comparable to other successful City events such as the July 3rd Celebration Fireworks! For more information on this event or how to become a vendor, please contact the Recreation Department at 770-831-7413.

Georgia Emergency Website
www.georgia911.org

Governor Perdue has announced the activation of a Georgia Emergency Management Agency website that will allow all citizens to access the latest status information. The Governor had this website developed to serve as a gateway to information regarding response and recovery activities, providing real-time information and a comprehensive list of available assistance during an emergency or disaster. This information includes but is not limited to weather, traffic, evacuation, shelter and threat-level. Please visit the website to become familiar with its organization.

RECREATION

The proposed lay out of the 49 acre park on Austin Garner Road is available for your review in City Hall and on the website at www.cityofsugarhill.com; access the Parks and Recreation link. This park will include 35 acres for passive recreation (soccer, walking trails, picnic areas) and 14 acres for a sports complex (tennis, basketball, racquetball, classes, playground, exercise rooms, etc.).

ARE YOU READY? The Sugar Hill Recreation Fall Program Guide is in the mail. Experience exciting new classes and activities. Sign up early; enjoy learning new hobbies; and relaxing with new friends. For more information, call the Community Center at 770-831-7413 or visit our website at: www.cityofsugarhill.com.
