

Proclamation
Mark MacKain

WHEREAS, Mr. MacKain is a former professional soccer player and long-time soccer coach and ambassador for the sport; and

WHEREAS, Mr. MacKain began his professional career as the 10th overall draft pick for the Atlanta Chiefs in 1979 and played three seasons in the Chiefs organization and one professional season with the New Jersey Rockets of the Major Indoor Soccer League; and

WHEREAS, Mr. MacKain was the third player ever to train in the EPL youth system with Aston Villa prior to a chronic knee injury that forced him away from the game; and

WHEREAS, Mr. MacKain's love of the sport continued by coaching his sons and having a very successful coaching career with Atlanta Fire United for 21 plus years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. MacKain over the past 12 years, has spearheaded a college recruiting process that has yielded the most player commits annually to colleges, more than any single club in the State of Georgia; and

WHEREAS, Mr. MacKain, in 2014, with support from his family, started All-In FC at Sugar Hill. All-In FC has grown into one of the largest clubs in the State of Georgia in just a short number of years.

All-In FC at Sugar Hill success can be attributed to Mark's tireless hours that he works and his professional work ethic; along with the great team of administrators, coaches, players, parents and volunteers who make up the All-In FC Family.

NOW, THEREFORE, the City of Sugar Hill Mayor and City Council extend congratulations to Mark MacKain for 39 years of success in the sport of soccer and many exciting and successful years to come in Sugar Hill.

So proclaimed this 13th day of March, 2017.
