

SUGAR HILL WELCOMES
JOEY MAZARIN

Joey Mazarin loves Elvis, country music and mostly his dog Milly.

He loves the Falcons and is an avid fan.

Joey is an altar boy at Prince of Peace Church in Buford.

He works at Publix in Flowery Branch where he is a top-notch employee.

Joey worked at McDonalds in New York for twenty-one years and worked as a groundskeeper in Greensburg, New York.

Joey's parents' names are Al and Marie. His family includes Theresa, Sal and Nicole Marie.

Because of Joey's great love for the community, the Mayor and City Council of Sugar Hill would like to declare Monday, October 14, 2019 as Joey Mazarin day and encourage all its citizens to welcome him and his family.

So proclaimed this 14th day October, 2019.
