

PROCLAMATION
JENN WETTSTEIN

WHEREAS, Jenn Wettstein is a valuable part of the Sugar Hill family and has contributed greatly towards the sense of community that is so prevalent in Sugar Hill; and

WHEREAS, Jenn has volunteered countless hours towards making the Sugar Hill community a better place to live; and

WHEREAS, Jenn has made significant contributions towards the success of both the Sugar Hill Business Alliance and the Players Guild at Sugar Hill, as well as other volunteer groups; and

WHEREAS; Jenn has taken thousands of photos in this community that provide treasured memories of individuals, places, and events in Sugar Hill; and

WHEREAS, Jenn has a special place in the hearts of many people, including the members of the Mayor, Council and all city employees; and

WHEREAS, each of us have special memories like having our pictures taken at events or being your golf cart driver at the annual Sugar Hill Business Alliance Golf Tournaments; and

WHEREAS, Jenn is an irreplaceable member of the Sugar Hill family that will be greatly missed, and she will always be welcome in our community and encouraged to visit on a regular basis; and

NOW THEREFORE, the City of Sugar Hill Mayor and City Council do hereby acknowledge that with a mixture of happiness and sadness, we wish Jenn, Joe and the entire Wettstein family great success on their move back to Idaho.

So proclaimed this 12th day of November 2019.
