

City of Sugar Hill Youth Council Session
Wednesday, October 24th, 2018 5:30 P.M.
City Hall Council Chambers,
5039 West Broad Street
Sugar Hill, GA 30518

Members in attendance: Laura Ann Acker, Camryn Flores, Nida Merchant, Bhaumi Shah, Camden Doker, Alexis Ducote, Khushi Mehta, Daniel Park

Meeting called to order at 5:34

Agenda is approved by Bhaumi and seconded by Khushi

Council reports:

- Lexi enjoyed the Cemetery Cleanup and sugar rush
- Camryn was apart of 8th grade night at Lanier and attended GA State University for the Contest of Champions event.
- Nida mentioned her own excitement with Sugar Rush and discussed a new initiative at North Gwinnett called Unity Day
- Khushi elaborated on North Gwinnett's Unity Day by introducing a new method of connecting students at the high school to empathize with one another.
- Camden is a member of LSLT and was able to talk about Red Ribbon Week with his freshman advisement group.
- Varessa noted that Sugar Rush and Great days of Service was a success! The Importance of Being Earnest opens November 2nd. Sugar Hill has been awarded the Metro Atlanta Redevelopment Summit award!
- Mike enjoyed the Great Days of Service and Sugar Rush activities in the past week and is highly looking forward to attending the Atlanta Game Fest.
- Laura Ann was able to meet Rob Woodall.

Red Ribbon Week:

- Camryn is trying to resonate the importance of drug and alcohol prevention to the underclassmen at Lanier High.
- North Gwinnett had troubles advertising Red Ribbon Week to the scale that they had hoped. The Council hopes to gain involvement from the North Gwinnett Marching Band next year.

Meeting adjourned at 7:06