Renee Unterman

- There is a sort of “Degregation of life” during your political career in terms of your safety and gender. Her drive to help the community has allowed her to surpass the pushback.
  - The youth is extremely important in local and international government and can become active by continuing to contact city officials and being civically active.
  - One of the biggest issues that local government officials face is that the general public is more aware of national government versus local government. The problem is that people are only interested in local government when the problem becomes something to their immediate concern.
  - Mrs. Unterman’s experiences as a nurse at Grady Hospital and her Mayorship with the City of Loganville have helped shape her journey as a congresswoman.
- The Youth Council will be discussing the Comprehensive plan at the next meeting which will be held on January 9th, 2018.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:08pm.
