Council Reports

- Lexi is getting ready for a Robotics Competition on February 29.
- Milen had a chick-fil-a leadership meeting and is now deciding what to do for his impact project.
- Bhaumi is interviewing students for NGSLT. (North Gwinnett Student Leadership Team)
- Khushi has a State Student Council Convention and her Foundation Fellowship Interview Weekend for UGA coming up this weekend.

Vaping Info in Schools Updates

- NGHS HOSA is interested in incorporating vaping curriculum into their club meetings, but they will not be able to do it until the next school year.

Debrief Meeting with Senator Unterman

- Updates to Senator Unterman's bill: no felony after third offense
- There is nothing in the bill on vape marketing because Congressmen in DC are working on relevant national legislation.
- Questions to Consider:
 - What is personal responsibility & where do you begin to cross the line?
 - Soda law
- Senator Mullis is working on a separate bill regarding taking away youth's driver's license privileges if they are caught vaping.
- Senator Gooch is working on a separate bill regarding the required distance between vape stores and schools.

Planning for End-of-Year Photo Scavenger Hunt

- Potential landmarks: historic tree, city hall, e-center, suite spot (mural?), veteran's day memorial, bowl, eagle theater marquis, plaque landmarks, art room, sugar hill greenway
- Open to everyone, not just high schoolers- that way we can use the city's help in advertising.
- Prize ideas? Sugar Hill swag, discounts to E-Center stores, small merch from E-Center stores,

Milen motions to adjourn, Avery seconds. Motion was unanimous.
