

WHEREAS, Zoe Simmons is a talented artist and currently in 10th grade at Sugar Hill Christian Academy, which is a private school affiliated with Sugar Hill United Methodist Church or Church on the Hill; and

WHEREAS, Zoe Simmons is taught by Stephanie Scott, a talented and exceptional art teacher, at Sugar Hill Christian Academy; and

WHEREAS, Stephanie Scott encouraged her art students in April, as their last High School art project, to create symbolic artwork expressing their feelings during the COVID 19 pandemic which was a fellow classmate's suggestion to capture the current state of the world in a drawing; and

WHEREAS, all of the students in Stephanie Scott's art class submitted outstanding artwork that symbolically captured our time in history; and

WHEREAS, Zoe Simmons submitted a piece of artwork that is complex in its symbolism, and captures many of the experiences and feelings we have all personally felt over these last many months; and

WHEREAS, Zoe Simmons is another example of the talented youth we have in the Sugar Hill community; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SUGAR HILL that we commend Zoe Simmons for her talent as an artist and her amazing ability to visually capture our thoughts and feelings through her artwork.

RESOLVED this 14th day of October, 2020.

Steve Edwards, Mayor

Susie Walker, Mayor Pro Tem

Taylor Anderson, Council Member

Marc Cohen, Council Member

Brandon Hembree, Council Member