

A Proclamation in Recognition of Thursday, November 19, 2020
as Gwinnett County Community Heroes Day

Whereas, the people of Gwinnett faced unprecedented challenges due to the Covid-19 pandemic in the year 2020.

Whereas, the citizens of Gwinnett County stepped up in many forms of leadership to serve each other in 2020; and

Whereas, the citizens of Gwinnett worked together, serving thousands of over-time hours and dedicating themselves beyond the call of duty to assist, feed, care for and serve and protect each other and the community at large; and

Whereas, the citizens of Gwinnett including all parents, teachers, administrators, first responders, healthcare workers and each worker and volunteer have shown their commitment to each other and this community; and

Whereas, Red, Blue and You a business-led, community based non-profit organization dedicated to honoring the community heroes of our county through a county-wide celebration, held annually on the third Thursday of November; then

Therefore, be it resolved that the City of Sugar Hill does hereby declare Thursday, November 19, 2020 as Gwinnett Community Heroes Day in Sugar Hill and encourage all residents to congratulate the workers and volunteers within the community.

So proclaimed this 10th day of November, 2020.

---

Steve Edwards, Mayor

---

Susie Walker, Mayor Pro Tem

---

Taylor Anderson, Council Member

---

Marc Cohen, Council Member

---

Nicholas Greene, Council Member

---

Brandon Hembree, Council Member