

Sugar Hill Historic Preservation Society Meeting
Sugar Hill City Hall History Room
Wednesday, June 21, 2023

SPEAKER – Brian Boggs, CPRP – Gwinnett County Cultural and Historic Interpretation Program Supervisor

A native to Gwinnett County, Brian Boggs attended high school here in Gwinnett County until moving to Atlanta to attend Georgia State University. Upon receiving his degree in history, he returned to Gwinnett County where he volunteered with the Gwinnett Historical Society. After assisting with the historical society, he accepted a position assisting with rentals at the historic sites Gwinnett County operates. Currently, Brian is the Program Supervisor for Interpretative Resources in the Department of Community Services. In this role he assists in the upkeep and interpretation of the historic assets in Gwinnett County. In his personal life, Brian lives in Buford with his fiancé and 4 cats. His personal interests involve gardening and culinary adventures.

SUGAR HILL HISTORIC PRESERVATION SOCIETY
2023 SUMMER SPEAKERS SERIES

BRIAN BOGGS

Gwinnett County Cultural
and
Historic Interpretation
Program Supervisor

Preserving
Gwinnett's
Story, A Quick Guide to Exploring
Your Local History

June 21
Doors open at 6:30 p.m.
Sugar Hill City Hall
History Room

