Golf Course

- March was a successful month, especially as the weather became nicer.
- Successful private tournament held with 80 plus participants
- Landscaping from the main entrance and around the clubhouse trimmed and cleaned
- Final product acquired and scheduling set for upcoming pro shop and bar and grill upgrades which should be completed in April
- All mowing equipment serviced and ready for upcoming spring and summer maintenance seasons.
- Several irrigation repairs after heavy storms knocked out some units.
- Greens lightly aerated and sanded to promote healthy growth at the beginning of the season
- Multiple downed trees and debris removed after a few storms

40 players participated in the SHGA 3-club Monty tournament. This fun tournament is played with only three clubs throughout the round. Those who figured out what three best clubs to use were:

- Winner: Dave “Chipman” Easterling

Thank you so much to all who participated in the tournament. I hope you will be able to join us for the Net Championship being held on Saturday, April 19th. Also beginning in April is the season long King of Hill Tournament. This one vs. one match play bracket tournament will crown the player who can last the longest to be named 2025 King of the Hill.
