

Proclamation

National Day of Prayer in Sugar Hill

WHEREAS, the City of Sugar Hill is a community built on shared values of faith, service, compassion, and neighborly care; and

WHEREAS, throughout our nation's history, people of many backgrounds and beliefs have turned to prayer for guidance, strength, hope, and unity; and

WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer, established by Congress and observed annually on the first Thursday of May, invites Americans to pause and reflect on the blessings we enjoy and the responsibilities we share; and

WHEREAS, the City of Sugar Hill recognizes the importance of fostering a spirit of unity and goodwill among all residents, encouraging moments of reflection that strengthen the bonds of community; and

WHEREAS, prayer, whether expressed publicly or privately, individually or collectively, remains a meaningful tradition for many in Sugar Hill, offering comfort in times of difficulty and gratitude in times of joy; and

WHEREAS, on this day, we honor the diverse expressions of faith within our city and affirm our commitment to mutual respect, understanding, and the common good; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SUGAR HILL that we do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 7, 2026, as the National Day of Prayer in Sugar Hill and encourage all residents to join in thoughtful reflection, prayer, or meditation in a manner consistent with their own beliefs.

ADOPTED this 9th day of March 2026, at Sugar Hill, Georgia.

---

Brandon Hembree, Mayor

---

Joshua Page, Mayor Pro Tem

---

Meg Avery, Council Member

---

Alvin Hicks, Council Member

---

Samantha Piovesan, Council Member

---

Gary Pirkle, Council Member