

City of Sugar Hill Proclamation
Early Childhood Educator Appreciation Day

WHEREAS, the earliest years of a child's life are a critical period of growth and development, laying the foundation for lifelong learning, health, confidence, and success; and

WHEREAS, early childhood educators provide nurturing, safe, and engaging environments where young children can learn, explore, develop essential skills, and build meaningful relationships; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated professionals support not only the children in their care, but also families, workplaces, schools, and the broader Sugar Hill community; and

WHEREAS, early childhood educators bring patience, compassion, creativity, knowledge, and professionalism to their work each day, helping every child feel valued, supported, and prepared for the future; and

WHEREAS, their service strengthens our community by expanding opportunities for children, supporting working families, and contributing to the social and economic vitality of the City of Sugar Hill; and

WHEREAS, the City of Sugar Hill recognizes the essential contributions of teachers, caregivers, directors, administrators, support staff, and all professionals who serve young children and their families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brandon Hembree, Mayor of the City of Sugar Hill, Georgia, on behalf of the Sugar Hill City Council, do hereby proclaim October 5, 2026 as Early Childhood Educator Appreciation Day in the City of Sugar Hill, and encourage all residents, businesses, schools, and community organizations to join us in honoring and thanking early childhood educators for their dedication, professionalism, and lasting impact on the lives of Sugar Hill's youngest residents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Sugar Hill to be affixed this 5th day of October, 2026.

Brandon Hembree, Mayor

Joshua Page, Mayor Pro Tem

Meg Avery, Council Member

Alvin Hicks, Council Member

Samantha Piovesan, Council Member

Gary Pirkle, Council Member