

City of Sugar Hill, Georgia

Proclamation Honoring Anna Harrison

WHEREAS, the City of Sugar Hill proudly recognizes outstanding young leaders whose service, scholarship, and initiative strengthen our community and inspire others to pursue excellence; and

WHEREAS, Anna Harrison, a distinguished student of Lanier High School, is pursuing the prestigious Girl Scout Gold Award, the highest honor in Girl Scouting, awarded to individuals who demonstrate exceptional leadership, vision, and commitment to meaningful community impact; and

WHEREAS, Anna's Gold Award project, "Preserving the Past That Built Us," reflects her deep respect for the Native American history of Georgia and her belief that understanding and preserving the stories of the first peoples who shaped this land is essential to how we live, learn, and build community today; and

WHEREAS, through extensive research, educational outreach, and the development of accessible historical resources, Anna's project highlights why preservation matters—not only as a safeguard of cultural identity, but as a foundation for informed citizenship and responsible stewardship of the places we call home; and

WHEREAS, Anna's work demonstrates maturity, empathy, and intellectual curiosity, qualities that will serve her well as she pursues her aspiration to become a teacher and continues to inspire future generations to value history, heritage, and community; and

WHEREAS, the City of Sugar Hill commends Anna for her leadership, her scholarship, and her commitment to elevating the stories that shaped Georgia's past and continue to influence its future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brandon, Mayor of the City of Sugar Hill, Georgia, on behalf of City Council, do hereby recognize and honor Anna Harrison for pursuing the Girl Scout Gold Award and for her exceptional contributions to historical education and cultural preservation through her project, "Preserving the Past That Built Us."

Brandon Hembree, Mayor

Joshua Page, Mayor Pro Tem

Meg Avery, Council Member

Alvin Hicks, Council Member

Samantha Piovesan, Council Member

Gary Pirkle, Council Member