SPRING RECREATION CLASSES

2005

The Sugar Hill Spring Classes for 2005 will begin in March and continue through May. We are bringing back some of our most popular classes such as Karate, Little Rookies, Tap Dance and Ballet, Guitar and Line Dancing. The program guide, which lists all of the classes being offered, will be mailed to all Sugar Hill residents and can also be viewed online beginning in February. Please visit our website at www.cityofsugarhill.com then select "Community Programs". Registration forms will be attached to the program guide and can also be printed from the website. For more information regarding the spring classes, please contact Sam or Megan, Recreation Specialists, at (770) 831-7413. This is "YOUR" recreation program. Your input is important.

Downtown Development Authority – Sugar Hill Business Alliance

Please attend the City's next Business Alliance meeting, Monday, February 21, 2005 at 6:30 p.m. at the Sugar Hill Golf Course Clubhouse. Jim Maran, Gwinnett Chamber CEO/President, will be the guest speaker. Meeting highlights to include: dinner and nomination/appointment of the Business Alliance Officers for 2005 and door prizes. The meeting is free of charge and all business owners, managers, associates are welcome to attend. Look for more information about the Business Alliance and instructions on how to become a member on the DDA website link at www.cityofsugarhill.com.

Town Green Memorial Bricks

Enjoy the beauty of the Sugar Hill Town Green while leaving a positive, everlasting message for generations to come. Memorialize a family veteran, a special date, or a loved one by purchasing an engraved marble brick to be placed at one of three locations at the Town Green. For more information and order forms, please visit our website and click on "Recreation" or contact Sam or Megan at (770) 831-7413.
