Sugar Hill Fall Festival October 17th

Make plans to attend the 9th annual Sugar Hill Fall Festival October 17th from 11am till 5pm. We'll have the "Chili Cook-off" contest, moonwalks and rides for the kids, and over 80 Arts & Crafts vendors with displays of hand crafted goods from jewelry to toys and everything in between! Also on display will be booths promoting local businesses, sporting groups, and services. There will be a wide assortment of food booths offering a variety of meals and treats. There will be live music on the main stage with local bands as the featured groups. This year the classic and custom car show will be expanded and be featured at the park entrance. We are expecting a large turn out for the motorcycle show which will relocate to the side parking lot. Check our web site for flyers and entry forms.

Grand Opening, The Diner at Sugar Hill

The Diner at Sugar Hill located at 4500 Nelson Brogden Blvd., has a warm inviting interior with an amazing full menu! It is the fourth Diner, plus the Sage Woodfire Tavern, by the Infinite Dining Group. "Casual and high energy" is how they define their restaurant. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, their extensive menu features live hickory-oak wood fired grilled steaks and chops with some global influences. They offer market fresh fish, seafood, salads, pastas, burgers and Greek specialties. Their breakfast selections run the gamut from all manor of egg preparations to pancakes and waffles.
