Reels at Robinson

It's back! Since we had such a great response to last years "Reels at Robinson", we've decided to continue it again this year. A family-oriented PG-rated movie will be played once a month at the new Sugar Hill Amphitheater, which is located in E.E. Robinson Park. Each movie is scheduled to begin at dusk. Bring some movie munchies and a blanket and enjoy movies under the stars.

Show Dates:	Movie:
April 16th	"Shrek"
May 21 st	"My Big Fat Greek Wedding"
June 18 th	"Cat in the Hat"
July 3 rd	"Cheaper by the Dozen"
August 20 th	"Remember the Titans"
September 17 th	TBA

Get Involved... Volunteer

Start the New Year off right by volunteering to serve your community. What better way to show your community spirit than serving on a committee?

If you are interested in participating or would like more information, please call the Sugar Hill City Clerk, Jane Whittington, at (770) 945-6716.

New Community Center

The new 4,600 square foot community center located on Church Street is now under construction. This construction is scheduled to be complete and the building opened by May 2004.

We will be offering many classes and programs such as: Senior nights, Teen and Family nights, ½ day children's camps and much more. If you have any suggestions or comments regarding programs you would like to see in the community center, please contact Kelly Rumrill, Recreation Program Coordinator, at (770) 945-6716.
