At approximately 0000 hours while patrolling the Laurel Park pool area, the Officer observed a green Ford Mustang. As he investigated it he discovered that the vehicle was occupied by a single subject. The Officer inquired as to what she was doing due to the fact the area was closed for the evening. The female replied that she was trying to call a friend of hers who resided in the subdivision. She went on to advise that she was going to leave her car at the friend's residence as soon as her friend led her there. After a few minutes the subject drove off. About 20 minutes later a marked GCPD Patrol Unit arrives on the scene and spotlighted the Officer, backed up and left without saying anything.
